2019 ASSEMBLY
CELEBRATION AND TRANSITION

The annual meeting of the Lehigh Mission District was held on Sunday, May 5, at the Synod Office. Following Opening Devotions, an enthusiastic group of pastors and lay leaders enjoyed a delicious dinner and then began working through an agenda which began with the recognition of seven pastors who are celebrating major anniversaries of service, including three who were present – David Godshall (60 years), John Deisinger (55 years) and John Kuschel (40 years). Although absent, the following pastors were also recognized – Richard Elliot (40 years), Donald Schwartz (40 years), Elizabeth Langensiepen (25 years) and Maritz Dolich (15 years).

Next was a significant election process. Results: Pastor Nelson Quinones was elected Dean and will begin serving the first of potentially two 3-year terms in this position in early June. Next was the election of Elizabeth Leibenguth as the new Chairperson, followed by the re-election of Dick Skelly as Treasurer and Catherine Mordosky as Secretary. Both of these positions are one-year re-electable terms. Dean Gade concluded this process by asking Pastor Samantha Drennan to accept responsibility for the final year of Pastor Quinones' current three-year responsibility as the Mission District representative to Synod Council.

Later in the evening Pastor Gade and Joshua Fink were thanked for their service as Dean and Chairperson of the Mission District. Although not present, Linda Smith was thanked for her continuing service as Editor of the LMD monthly newsletter. Obviously, the spirit of the group also included gratitude to Catherine Mordosky for her continuing service as Secretary and to Dick Skelly for his willingness to continue serving as Treasurer. And Sister Janet Stump concluded the evening by leading an interesting group discussion.

Lastly, to devote some special attention to the treasurer responsibilities of the Lehigh Mission District. Dick Skelly's service in this position is approaching a quarter of a century. That's a long time! He assures us that it is not a complicated responsibility and provided the following description which I agreed to share as an encouragement for someone to accept this challenge. This position includes:

- Becoming an active member of the LMD Board, especially involving finances
- Monthly receiving, recording, and depositing of checks from congregations
- Reception and processing of requests for payments (avg 25 checks per year)
- Monthly reconciliation of checkbook and bank statement
- Report financial circumstances to board meetings (approx. 6 per year)
- Record and coordinate financial aspects of LMD Ingathering during fourth quarter
- Prepare Treasurer's Report for presentation and prepare yearly Budget for approval at to annual LMD Spring Assembly.

If you are willing to consider serving your Mission District in this capacity, please contact Dean Quinones nlsqns@gmail.com or 610-653-5858 to indicate your interest. Obviously, Dick Skelly and the LMD will both be very appreciative.

God Bless!
